

inTag Users Guide

inTag is a software that facilitates the processing of Tagged MR Image sequences. One of the main reasons of such images not to be used in clinical practice is the lack of appropriate processing tools. inTag offers a solution for the complete and rational analysis of such sequences and results in cartographies, graphs and documented files for easy exploitation.